Text Entry Policy

The first time one of our* service numbers appears in standard format in the Telephone Directory it is free of charge. Our policy for standard directory entries in the Alpha pages is to include surname or company name, initial/s, installation address and service number. Each number must initially appear in the Alpha pages before it can appear in the Classified section. Charges will be incurred should the entry be in bold enhanced text or an additional entry for that same number is requested. In the Classified pages every line is chargeable, there are no free entries.

Text entries are carried forward automatically to the next issue and charged at the appropriate rates, unless advice is received in writing, from the customer to cease or amend prior to the closing date of print.

Current text entry charges can be found by visiting www.theguernseydirectory.com

* Charges may apply to Other Licensed Operators' (OLO) numbers in print. Please be aware that, as we do not have control or knowledge of any changes to OLO numbers, it is your responsibility to advise any amendments, such as ceasing, code changes etc. in writing prior to the closing date.

Character Count

Text entries are governed by the number of characters (including punctuation and spaces) per line, the type of print used (standard, bold, superbold) and which letters are used as they are not all standard size.

As a guide:

SUPERBOLD (blue, red or green)                      30 characters per main line

Bold: 38 characters per main line                      30 characters per sub line

Standard: 50 characters per main line                      40 characters per sub line
